-Lutheran Visitor: "Rev. S. J. Cowan, an evangelist, organized a new church called "The Weslyan Methodist church," about six or eight months ago, in the Piedmont section of South Carelina. It now has ten churches all in South Carolina. This is to be lamented, as we have too many denominations now, but it may prove a confortable home for the 'holiness' men' in the Methodist church. That part of the State is famous for illicit distilleries and revival meetings." —Married at the residence of Misses Noris, in Westminster, on Wednesday, November 22 at 3:30 p. m., Mr. W. P. Dickson to Miss Lou Anna Norris, Rev. J. A. ### Storm Prophet Hick's Paper.

Many persons know of Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the noted storm prophet, but are not so well acquainted with the fact that his monthly paper, Word and Works, is one of the most attractive and instructive journals in America and is doing more to educate the people in science than any other. It not only contains Rev. Hicks monthly forecasts, complete and unabridged, but also articles from his pen on astronomy and planetary meteorology, finely illustrated. There is a sermon of finely illustrated. There is a sermon of religious article in each number a "Home, Sweet Home" department, edited by a lady, a "Youth and Beauty" department, for boys and girls, "Quries" for those who want hard nuts eracked and many other good things. All this for the low price of $1 per year. All subscribers who pay for a year's subscription in advance before Feb. 1 1894 will receive free, as a premium, Rev. Irl R Hicks' Almanae for 1894. This book alone is well worth the subscription price. Send six cents for a sample copy of the paper or send $1 for year's subscription to Word and Works Pub. Co., St. Louis, Mo.
